COMMITTEE OF 100 PLANS PEACE MEETING

Big Gathering to Be Held at Poli's Sunday Night to Talk Neutrality.

Plans have been perfected by a citizens' ommittee of one hundred to hold a mass seeting at Poli's Theater Sunday night at 8 o'clock in the interest of neutrality and to create such sentiment for neu-trality by this country as will expedite ents on the part of the belligerents for peace.

15. W. Baker, former United States district attorney, will preside at the meeting, and speakers who have already ac-cepted invitations to appear and address the meeting include Representative

William H. Stafford, of Wisconsin, Representative W. J. Carey, of Wisconsin, Representative Alphonse G. Koeble, of New York, and John Devoy, editor of the Gaelic American, of New York.

The opening address will be made by Chairman Baker, who will outline the purpose of the meeting.

It is expected that resolutions will be offered at the meeting approving bills which have been introduced in Congress prohibiting the exporting of arms and aranguitien or munitions of war to any of the belligerest countries. The citizens committee of one hundred which has charge of the meeting will also probably introduce resolutions protesting against the little of the meeting will also probably introduce resolutions protesting against interference with our commerce on ie high seas. Similar mass meetings have been held production of books and papers, and all the large cities of the country, but is believed that one held here will do such to create sectiment in the interest the contingent fund of the Senate for Pennsylvania Announces It W.
